

CHETHAM'S
LIBRARY

Collecting Political Ephemera

Chetham's Library

Thursday 22 February 2018, 09.30-16.30

- 9:30-10:00 Tea & Coffee/ Registration
- 10.00 Introduction to "The Ballad of Chetham's Library" digitisation project.
- 10.15-11.15 Keynote : Dr Robert Poole (UCLan): William Robert Hay: Peterloo magistrate and collector of ephemera

Break to 11.30

- 11.30-12.00 Prof Tony Taylor (Sheffield Hallam): Drowning in a sea of paper: the survival and preservation of the leaflet in modern political communication
- 12.00-12.30 Adam Jaffer (Collections Officer, People's History Museum): Collecting practices at The People's History Museum

Lunch (including opportunity to see the library)

- 13.30- 14:00 Jen Hoyer (Interference Archive, New York) : Collecting in/with the community
- 14.00-14.30 Sarah Bromage (Art Collection Learning and Audience Development Curator, Scottish Political Archive): Collecting the 2014 Referendum
- 14.30-15:00 Vyki Sparkes, Catherine Nightingale & Letty Steer (Museum of London) : Collecting/Preserving Brian Haw's Peace Camp

Break to 15:15

- 15:15 - 15:45 Alison Bailey, (Lead Curator, Printed Heritage Collections 1901-2000, British Library): One path to suffrage: the Arncliffe Sennett collection at the British Library
- 15:45- 16.15 Hannah Ishmael, (PhD candidate, UCL): Taking Affect: The Politics of Ephemera
- 16.15- 16:30 Plenary/ finish